WELCOME TO WINTER PARK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whether you're a guest or a long-time member, we're glad you joined us in worship this morning to celebrate the twenty-second Sunday after Pentecost.

Winter Park Presbyterian Church strives to be a community where we find new life by the grace of God in Jesus Christ, through the Holy Spirit. We seek to be a people who live out of God's redeeming grace, witnessing to the new life given by God by engaging in ministries of compassion and justice.

There are many opportunities here to connect with others. It is our hope that you find this church to be a place where you feel welcomed and equipped to grow in your Christian faith.

Jason T. Micheli
Senior Pastor

If You Are New Here

We invite you to write your name(s) in the red registration pad when it is passed down the pew. If you would like information on the ministries of this church, please include your contact information. Also, greeters and ushers at the entrances can provide you with information about our programs and volunteer opportunities. Please join us for refreshments and conversation in fellowship hall following the service.

Worship Aids

Assistive hearing devices are available from an audio/visual technician at the rear of the sanctuary. Large print hymnals are available from the ushers.

Worshipping with Children

Children are welcome to stay in the sanctuary for the entire worship service. They are invited to come forward for the Children's Moment, following which they may return to sit with their families, or (Pre-K—3rd grade) leave for Children's Church on non-communion Sundays. In addition, childcare for preschool-age children is available in our nursery, room 608, during all services.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

Elders are available to pray with you after the service, at the front of the sanctuary. Your prayers are confidential unless you request they be shared with our Pastoral Care staff. You may also complete a prayer request card (available in the pews and at the back of the sanctuary) and give it to an usher.

Heal and restore us.

Help us to live holy and joyful lives,

Stephen Ministers Meeting

Friday, November 10 the Stephen Ministers will review "Dealing with Depression." Participants will leave the session with a better understanding of the differences between mild, moderate, and severe depression; the causes and symptoms of depression as well as guidelines that recommend reference of the depressed person to professional care. Please join the Stephen Ministers in Room 301 as they study this timely topic.

Global Market 2017

The Global Christmas Market hosts various non-profit vendors offering unique gifts, perfect for Christmas gifts. You will find handcrafted jewelry, ornaments, Christmas décor, scarves, soaps, beautiful plants, and much more. All sales go directly to the non-profit organizations. The event takes place in Fellowship Hall November 11, from 9am -1:30pm and November 12 from 12pm-1:30pm.

Advent Booklet

WPPC will again produce an Advent Booklet with devotionals for the season. This year we are seeking a few sentences (or up to a paragraph) on a scriptural passage: a passage from the Old Testament that foretells the coming of the Messiah, a passage from the New Testament that speaks of Jesus Christ, a passage that speaks of the second coming of Christ.

You may write about the scripture or draw a picture - or both. Please submit by November 19. We will print in time for the Journey to Christmas event the following Sunday. Please send your contribution to Phyllis Woods at PhyllisCW@cfl.rr.com, or give it to her at church.

Help Guide the Journey

The CE Committee is seeking your help for the Journey to Christmas event following the 10:30 worship on November 26. No experience necessary. All you need to do is to be able to assist with crafts at various tables. And guess what?! The crafts will be provided for you.

If any questions please contact Pastor Emily.

Author Selina Siak Chin Yoke to Visit WPPC

Selina Siak Chin Yoke is the author of "The Woman Who Breathed Two Worlds" and "When the Future Comes Too Soon." She is visiting WPPC Friday, December 1 at 7pm in room 301. She grew up listening to family stories and ancient legends, always knowing that one day she would write. After careers as a theoretical physicist, investment banker, and trader in London, she was diagnosed with cancer and she decided not to delay her dream of writing any longer. Join the the Abibliophobes (for those afraid of running out of reading material) at the Book Club as Selina talks about her background, her books and wherever else the discussion may take us! Her books are available on Amazon.

Sacrament of Baptism • Lúkas Baldur Cruz-Mogensen
(10:30)

At the pastor's invitation, the congregation says these words of assurance:

For you, little child, the Word of God became flesh and lived among us, full of grace and truth. For you Jesus Christ suffered death crying out at the end, "It is finished!" For you Christ triumphed over death, rose in newness of life, and ascended to rule over all. All of this was done for you, little child, though you do not know any of this yet. But we will continue to tell you this good news until it becomes your own. And so the promise of the gospel is fulfilled: "We love because God first loved us."

At the pastor's invitation, the congregation extends this welcome:

With joy and thanksgiving, we welcome you into Christ's church for we are all one in Christ. We promise to love, encourage, and support you, to share the good news of the gospel with you, and to help you know and follow Christ.

At the conclusion of the sacrament, all join in singing the following:

Baptized in water, sealed by the Spirit, marked with the sign of Christ our King:
Born of the Spirit, we are God's children, joyfully now God's praises we sing.

(Third Stanza of Hymn 492, Baptized in Water [Buessan], The Presbyterian Hymnal)

SERMON A FRUITFUL YIELD
The Rev. Dr. Jason T. Micheli

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH • Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

† SEALING THE WORD • SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER †

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
