Presbyterian

Rev. Joe S. McClure, associate minister at Winter Park Presbyterian Church, will be the preacher at the 8:30 a.m. worship service Sunday, Dec. 24. The Westminster High School Choir and Solo Quartette will sing.

Dr. Oswald Delgado will preach at the 11 a.m. service with the combined Westminster High School and Chancel Choirs singing.

The annual Christmas Eve Service will be at 7:30 p.m. with Rev. W. Kendrick Borden, assistant minister giving the meditation.

The combined choirs, numbering 175 voices will sing traditional and modern Christmas carols.

The Dutch handbells will be played and Alphonse Carlo, violinist, concertmaster of the Florida Symphony, will play the Handel Sonata in E Major and the Schubert "Ave Maria."

The Christmas morning family service will be at 10:00 a.m. with Dr. Delgado giving the meditation and Virginia Murchison, the soloist.

The Living Nativity will be enacted under the tower of the church by the young people, with live animals at 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Dec. 21 through Dec. 24.
