Hello! Welcome home to worship at Winter Park Presbyterian Church. Whether this is your first time here or your hundredth, we're glad that you've chosen to join us today!

Here at Winter Park Presbyterian Church we strive to be a community of members joined together through new life by the grace of God in Jesus Christ, through the Holy Spirit. Our goal is to be a people who live out of God's redeeming grace, witnessing to the new life given by God by engaging in ministries of compassion and justice.

Whether you are interested in finding education classes, a group who shares your interests, or looking to connect with our community, there is something for everyone here. It is our hope that you will find this church to be a place where you feel welcomed and will join in on our activities as we all seek to grow in our faith. Welcome!

This week we would like to take a moment to thank Sue Rudolph and Sandy Matrick. They have faithfully been a link between those in our congregation as well as others with special needs and members of our church community who wish to reach out with prayers, notes of concern and other evidences of support. Their efforts have helped build a community of care within our church and have been very meaningful to many of us.

We want to highlight the many ways you make our church a home by acknowledging moments of kindness—a way to inspire, grow, and connect. If you would like to share a moment of kindness please email Cindy Mitchum - cindym@winppc.org.

Relationships in Action - Sunday Mornings at 9:15 AM in Room 301

July 22 —The Way: Part 3 of 3

The Camino de Santiago pilgrimage in Spain, by its nature, serves as the ultimate metaphor for life. Footsteps along a well-trodden path may be our guide, but do not shield us from the questions that most of our busy everyday lives prevent us at times from recognizing. Our humanity toward ourselves and others, our history and our future is what defines us. Discussion will be led by Nancy Galyean.

Baptism is symbolized in the left lancet. In the lowest panel is the font containing baptismal water, with Alpha and Omega, the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, on either side signifying that Christ is from all time to all time. On the font is seen the Green monogram for Christ, the Christ. Just below the font is a fish, the secret symbol of the early Christians when to be known as such meant persecution and death.

At the pastor’s invitation, the congregation says these words of assurance:

For you, little child, the Word of God became flesh and lived among us, full of grace and truth. For you Jesus Christ suffered death crying out at the end, “It is finished!” For you Christ triumphed over death, rose in newness of life, and ascended to rule over all. All of this was done for you, little child, though you do not know any of this yet. But we will continue to tell you this good news until it becomes your own. And so the promise of the gospel is fulfilled: “We love because God first loved us.”

At the pastor’s invitation, the congregation extends this welcome:

With joy and thanksgiving, we welcome you into Christ’s church for we are all one in Christ. We promise to love, encourage, and support you, to share the good news of the gospel with you, and to help you know and follow Christ.
