

The Covenanter

FEBRUARY 2020

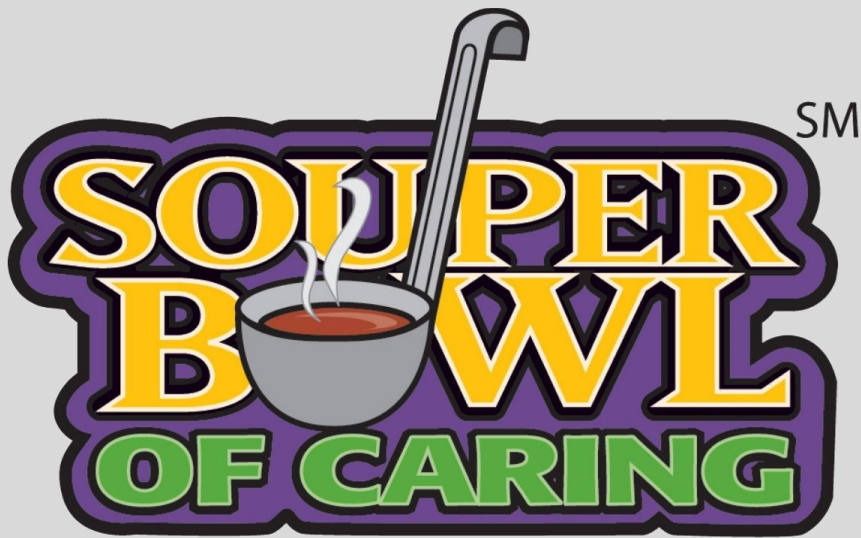

When I was little and the internet was still in it's infancy, my father found a website that claimed to predict the height of children based on their parents heights. I can remember him walking around the house one day proclaiming to my brother and I just how tall we were going to be when we grew up and getting out the tape measure to see just how much taller we were going to grow. I remember my father excitedly telling me that one day I'd be five feet and four inches tall and then looking up at that tape measure utterly disappointed. Short. I was going to be short or, as my father put it, vertically challenged. I recall being almost entirely inconsolable. I wanted to be tall! I wanted to be able to ride all the rides! I wanted to be able to look people in the eye and not up at them! It wasn't until my father reminded me that my mother was five feet and two inches that I started to see things in a different light. My mother was beautiful and smart, she was outgoing and a joy to be around. She had "shortitude" my father used to joke and I was always envious of that ability. My mother taught me that sometimes great things come in small packages.

Sometimes I feel like February is a forgotten month. It has Valentine's Day as its claim to fame but I never hear people say they are looking forward to much in February. People look forward to January because it's the new year, March because of the change of season, July is perfect beach weather, and September is when routines for the school year fall into place, but no one ever says "I'm looking forward to February." Unless of course, you are me!

I like February. It's shorter than all the others, even with Leap Day. But have you ever thought of just how much goes into February. Groundhog's Day (ask your friends up North, it's a biggie!), Super Bowl and it's counter part Souper Bowl of Caring, Valentine's Day, President's Day Weekend, and of course Ash Wednesday and the start of Lent. It's not a month that has a holiday celebrated all month long like October and December. Instead, February is made up of small moments of happiness; a few days here and there that ask us to show just how human we are. February gives us an opportunity to collect 1000 cans for the Souper Bowl; with even the smallest cans having two servings, that's 2000 servings! February gives us an opportunity to acknowledge our countries history, the places we've been, the place we're at, and where we want to go. February reminds us that love comes in many forms, not only romantic but brotherly, sacrificial, and friendly. February asks us to look inside ourselves, to acknowledge what is broken within us and make a commitment to change as we reorient ourselves back to Christ. Individually, none of these things seems worth noting, but when you add them all up and put them together, February reminds us that sometimes great things come in small packages.

I'm looking forward to this February, just as I am every February. Let us dare to prove to others that this is a month of great importance.

In 539 B.C.E., after the Babylonians were subsumed by the Persian Empire, the exiled Judeans were allowed to return to Jerusalem. So what happened next? This lesson will provide a penetrating look at the Persian administration of the Holy Land, the influence of Ezra and Nehemiah and the birth of early Judaism.

Alexander the Great's conquest of the Near East introduced Greek culture to the Holy Land. This lesson will examine archaeological findings to illustrate the profound influence of Alexander and his successors.

February 16th—Amazing Stories

Each of us has an amazing story. Matt Straub will led the class.

February 23rd—Social Issues

Relationships in Action adult Sunday School class at WPPC uses a theme that we study issues “with the Bible in one hand and the newspaper in the other.” We are interested in social issues that affect our lives and the lives of others and how we can be a factor in positive change. With this in mind, you are invited to bring the newspaper or articles from recent papers to share and discuss with the class. Mary Beardall will lead the discussion.

Thank You!

My family and I want to express our sincere gratitude for all the love and support we received from our Church during David's illness and passing. The cards, emails, texts, phone calls, chats and hugs were all so appreciated. I couldn't have made it through this without all of you! The service and reception were just perfect, thank you to everyone who worked and/or attended.

The 2019 Annual Report for the Deacons was not included in the Annual Report for the Congregational Meeting held on January 26th. Below is a copy of their report.

Deacons 2019 Annual Report

Chapter 6 of the Book of Order describes the work of the Deacons: "It is the duty of the deacons, first of all, to minister to those who are in need, to the sick, to the friendless and to any who may be in distress both within and beyond the community of faith." The Deacons are the "caring arm" of the Church while the Session functions as the "governing arm". The Deacons have ten important ministries and have a chairman for each.

These ministries include:

- 1) Welcome Baby Baskets: There were four baby baskets delivered in 2019.
- 2) Cards: This includes sympathy, get well, thinking of you, and cards for other special occasions. A total of 384 cards were sent out by the deacons, which included 77 Christmas cards sent out and also some baked goods delivered to our homebound and shut-in members of the congregation.
- 3) Care Notes: These are pamphlets and brochures maintained by the deacons and placed in the Narthex and entranceway to the church on various topics of support, including devotionals and The Covenanter.
- 4) Pulpit Flower Delivery: Deacons break down the donated Sunday floral arrangements after each service for delivery to the homebound, hospitals or local health centers. 77 such arrangements were delivered.
- 5) Food Pantry: Deacons deliver donated food to the local food pantry, which is an affiliate of the Christian Service Center. 27 carts were delivered.
- 6) Hospital Visits: Deacons visit church members who are hospitalized. 77 visits were made.
- 7) Homebound Visits: Deacons visit incapacitated members who are no longer able to attend the regularly scheduled Sunday church services. There were 155 such visits.
- 8) Memorial Services and Receptions: Deacons serve as ushers and hosts for all the Memorial Service and Receptions for both members as well as non-members of the church. There were 10 such Services with follow-on Receptions supported by the deacons.
- 9) Communion Services: Deacons in concert with Session members, serve communion in the church on the First Sunday of every month. The deacons also assist in the monthly communion services conducted at the Winter Park Westminster Towers as well as individual communion services for homebound members.
- 10) Deacons Den Articles: The Deacon Secretary writes an article every month for The Covenanter which highlights the many deacon activities as well as providing inspirational messages to the congregation.

Deacons serving in 2019 include:

Psalm 100

Acclaim the Lord, all men on earth, worship the Lord in gladness; enter His presence with songs of exultation. Know that the Lord is God; He has made us and we are His own, His people, the flock which He shepherds.

When travelling, I often long for home. When moving to a new city, I hope for neighbors willing to offer a friendly welcome. We yearn for a sense of belonging, to find a place and people who appreciate us as we are.

Perhaps a good shelter is more a state of mind than a place to be. If we doubt our worth, then no place or group of people can provide enough nurturing support. The line in Psalm 100 that speaks most dearly to me is, "He has made us and we are His own..." God is our resting place, our comfort and nourishment. No matter what opinion we hold of ourselves, we belong to God.

When we find a church home, we find others accustomed to relying on God as their shepherd. In times of happiness or times of trouble, we flock together to seek the presence and guidance of God. We gather to celebrate our fellowship in the truest home we have found on earth.

Though we sometimes face difficult times as a congregation, we still have plenty for which to be grateful. We have each other. We have our Shepherd. "He has made us and we are His own..."

Christmas Joy Offering Update

Our congregation donated $939.00 to the Christmas Joy Offering in December 2019. Fifty percent of receipts have been sent to the Board of Pensions for assistance programs that provide support to retired and active church workers and their spouses and families. The other fifty percent supports Presbyterian-related ethnic schools and colleges through the Racial Ethnic and Women's Ministries of the Presbyterian Mission Agency. Thank you to all who were able to be a part of this special offering to assist those who serve the church: Past, Present and Future.

Library News

Thanks to all who recently donated books for adults to the library. These books not only include fiction, but also interesting biographies on famous men and women. And special thanks to Nancy Appich for purchasing quite a number of children's books. Every Thursday morning Nancy reads to preschool children who then check out books.

Your church library was established in 1958 and has about 6,000 books. A cabinet in the Narthex display a group of books for adults. Also, the library is open in the mornings every Sunday, Monday and Thursday. Books can be checked out for two weeks by listing your name on the white card.

Some of the recent additions include, Kiss the Girls and Make Them Cry by Mary Higgins Clark, who has written 40 suspense novels, short stories and children's books. Spy by Danielle Steel, which is a story of a young woman caught up in a dangerous double life on behalf of her country during WWII. Dashing Through the Snow by Debbie Macomber, a Christmas novel of warmth, humor, promise of love and unexpected adventure. This book is predicted by Hallmark Channel to be made into a movie. To the Moon and Back by Karen Kingsbury—a story of divine love. A stranger leaves a letter for someone named Jenna in a chain link fence. Their shared connection is the loss of their parents during the Oklahoma City bombing.

Stop by and "check out" what's new in the WPPC Library!

BSA Youth Come to WPPC

In August last year, WPPC became the charter organization again for three Boy Scout units. These are Cub Scout Pack 246, Scout Troop 246, and the brand new Scout girl Troop 246. These units moved to WPPC after they lost their long-time home at Aloma Methodist Church. With WPPC's old Pack and Troop 64 now defunct, this move worked well for both the scouts and the church.

Cub Scouting is the BSA program for boys and girls in grades K-5. Pack 246 is led by Cubmaster Shawn Kopriva. Shawn has had boys in the scout program for over 20 years. Pack 246 is active with events such as the Pinewood Derby and the Native American Weekend at Camp La No Che.

Scouts BSA is the program for youth who have completed 5th grade and are under 18. Scouts BSA is for boys and girls, although each troop has just one or the other. The Troops are led by Scoutmasters Randy Scott and Tammy Adams. The Troops camp often, and sometimes when you arrive for church on Sundays you may see them unloading their trailer after a weekend in the woods. Or on a river; the Troops enjoy canoe trips and recently paddled for 3 days on the Suwanee River.

The Pack meets on Mondays nights in the CE building, and the Troops meet there on Wednesday nights. The scouts are looking forward to making connections with the church, and have already assisted in replacing some floodlights around the buildings. February 9 is Scout Sunday, and this year with the help of the Worship Committee, we will see them in church on that day. Welcome 246!

REGISTRATION FOR 2020/2021 SCHOOL YEAR

Registration for ages six months through VPK classes for the 2020/2021 school year begins February 3 for our families who have a currently enrolled student. Open enrollment begins February 10. Our school day runs from 9:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. with early drop off and extended day available. After school enrichment programs are offered in soccer, gymnastics, music & movement, mixed sports, Spanish, art, yoga, nature discovery, ballet, science and cooking.

SUMMER CAMP PROGRAM IMPORTANT NEWS

There will be no summer camp program this year. A new roof for all preschool buildings and other improvements such as grading and adding new artificial ground cover to the toddler playground and drainage system repairs have been in the planning stages for some time. Since these projects involve work that could impact the safety of the children in our care, take several weeks, and involve some unknowns, the Preschool Board has decided it would be best to schedule everything during the summer.

While we will not be hosting our wonderful summer program and apologize for any inconvenience this may cause, we are confident that the Board has made the right decision to make all of these improvements at once and not disrupt the children attending during our regular school year.

Next year we plan to have our amazing six week summer program back up and running.

CHapel Wednesdays

Two year olds, threes and VPK students participate in our Chapel program every Wednesday morning. Chapel is a special time of developmentally appropriate worship for young children led by VPK teacher Mrs. Richcreek, Mrs. Wilson, Director, and Emily Wasser, Pastor for Family Discipleship.

Children from our VPK classes are selected to participate as Chapel Helpers and help to act out the week's story of God's love for us. We welcome preschool families to join us for Family Chapel on the third Wednesday of each month. During Family Chapel we invite children celebrating birthdays that month to stand on the steps to the altar while we sing Happy Birthday to the group.

During their Wednesday morning Chapel program VPK students acted out the story of Jesus' disciples, how they followed him and learned from him.

We invite children celebrating birthdays each month to stand on the steps to the altar during Family Chapel and we sing Happy Birthday to the group.
