From the Pastor . . .

With all that is going on in the world, it is good we arrive at February or what we have come to know as the “love month.” I thought it would be good to write to you concerning matters of love and not merely romantic love, but the all-encompassing Love of God - Agape. However, as I began to type, no words would come. For a moment, I was frustrated as I stared at the blank page. Then it occurred to me, one of the greatest things written about God’s Love is recorded in 1st Corinthians chapter 13, often referred to as the “love chapter” in the Bible. As you read, take a minute and observe what love is and then also, what love is not.

“If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge it will pass away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. For now, we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.”

When we read in John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son...” or in 1st John 4: “God is love.” This is the love that is detailed above and it’s a stark contrast to what masquerades as love in our world today. I hope we will indeed celebrate the “love month.” However, I hope we will do this not just in February, but each day of the year, as we strive to share the greatest gift - God’s Agape for the world.

Grace, Mercy and Peace,

Pastor Darren

NEIGHBORS & FRIENDS

February 20th @ 11:30am

The month of February is a milestone in the life of Neighbors and Friends. It was just last year, February 2024, that we hosted our first monthly gathering. The results have been amazing as we have grown, not only in numbers attending, but in reaching out to others, our neighbors and friends, to spread the joy that comes from this Christ centered ministry.

We have a very special program for February 20. The "Belles" will join us to present a musical program. Sandra Shafer, the WPPC 8:15am accompanist and the soprano in the chancel choir, is bringing her Belles. This is a women's chorus, one of the many choirs at Apopka High School that she directs.

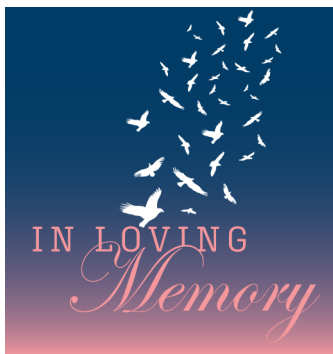

We will meet on Thursday, February 20 at 11:30am in Fellowship Hall. The musical program will be presented at that time, followed by a Chef Scott catered lunch. The students, or Belles, will join us around the tables as we share the meal. The cost of the meal is $15.00, and if you choose, you may purchase an extra meal for one of the guests. Reservations must be made by Monday, February 17 by calling the church office or signing up on the sheet in the front hallway.

Please plan to attend as this promises to be a wonderful program. The intergenerational time around the tables is truly a gift. So join us for a time of song and chatter that will enrich all who attend. WPPC is blessed to have talented musicians who lead high school music programs, so we can celebrate that gift as well. We hope to see you there.

BAPTISM

On January 19th we welcomed Helen Patricia Tam, daughter of Matthew & Haley Tam, into our worldwide family of faith through the sacrament of baptism. Welcome to the family, Helen!

Christian sympathy is extended to the family and friends of those who have recently passed.

Lucy Martin

12/1/1924 - 1/15/2025

William Branch

9/28/38 - 1/19/25

The Compassion Committee at WPPC is again spearheading our Souper Bowl of Caring effort. This year your donations will be given to the Food Pantry at Redeemer Lutheran Church where they provide bags of food that will last 2 days for our “unhoused” neighbors. The Food Pantry is open on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 to 11:30am.

Please remember the folks needing our help do not have access to a stove so avoid bringing items that require preparation. They are happy to let a can of soup warm in the sun then enjoy it right out of the can. What they need most is protein so try to provide soups or other canned goods that will help them out and fill them up.

Donations will be collected from Sunday, February 2, through Sunday, February 9. Please place your donations in the baskets in the church offices hallway or in the large bin in Fellowship Hall. All donations will be delivered to the Redeemer Lutheran Church Food Pantry on Monday, February 10. Thank you for your generosity.

Presbytery Cuban Church Partnership Visit OTC Medicines and Other Supplies Desperately Needed

John Gehrig and Matt Straub will be part of the Central Florida Presbytery Cuban Network team visiting Presbyterian churches in Central Cuba February 18-25. While in Cuba, the two will visit our partner church, Iglesia de Santa Clara Presbyterian, in Santa Clara. The visit is to express our solidarity with our Cuban brethren and provide some basic support by bringing to them over the counter (OTC) medicines, craft supplies and other small items. Our Presbytery tells us OTC medicines are “non-existent” in Central Cuba and “desperately needed”.

OTC Medicine List
Infant Tylenol	Lubricant eye drops
Children’s Tylenol	Multivitamins for children
Children’s Ibuprofen	Multivitamins for older adults
Diaper rash cream	Glucosamine
Aspirin, Ibuprofen, Tylenol	Omega 3 Fish Oil
Mucus relief chest congestion (Vapo-Rub)	Vitamin C
Antibiotic ointment	Vitamin E
Hydrocortisone ointment	VitaminB-6
Benadryl ointment, tablets, capsules	Alka-Selzer
Hemorrhoidal ointment	Band-Aids

Craft Supplies
Yarn, especially cotton	Pens, pencils
Embroidery floss	Scissors
Thread (for sewing machines)	Glue sticks
Needles, pins, sewing scissors	Crayons, colored marker pens
Crochet hooks, knitting needles	Coloring pages

Red barrels are currently in the office hallway and in Fellowship Hall to collect your donations through Sunday, February 16. If you have any questions, please call John Gehrig (407) 415 3238 or Matt Straub (904) 806 1871.

HOW TO DEAL WITH A CLOSE TALKER

With flu, COVID, RSV and Noro Virus going around now, we all need to be conscious of getting too close when speaking to someone.

Viruses are easily spread by airborne droplets, so it is imperative that we keep our distance when speaking to someone. Close talkers violate your personal bubble and get too close for comfort. A situation with a close talker can be particularly awkward because you must maintain goodwill and sometimes friendships when dealing with them. You don't want to be impolite to your friend or co-worker, but you really need some more personal space.

A close talker violates others' personal space by getting uncomfortably close during a conversation. In Western cultures, this is usually someone who gets within 18" of your face while talking. Some people may be close talkers because of a hearing difficulty, or they may simply lack awareness of personal boundaries.

Author Robert Frost famously wrote, "Good fences make good neighbors." If people do not know where your fence lies, they may accidentally cross it. Some simple ways to communicate your personal boundaries without being rude are to hold something out in front of you, use broader hand gestures or take a step back.

Personal space or a personal bubble is the invisible space around a person where they feel most comfortable. Psychologically, this area belongs to them. When you violate someone's personal space, they may feel uncomfortable, awkward, unsafe, anxious, or even angry.

Social scientists call this concept of personal space proxemics or the study of how people unconsciously structure the space around them. There are typically 4 socially acceptable zones of personal space:

- Intimate: 0 to 18 inches
- Personal: 18 inches to 4 feet
- Social: 4 to 12 feet
- Public: more than 12 feet

All these nuances aside, the best rules of thumb to find someone's personal bubble is:

- Rule of Thumb: If you take a step forward and they step back—you are too close!
- Rule of Thumb: If they keep taking steps toward you, you are too far!

Close talkers can make conversations unbearably awkward. When you can smell what someone had for lunch or feel their hot breath on your cheek, it's probably time to say something. Thankfully, you don't have to be rude or unprofessional about it. Some people just may not have the social skills or body language awareness to understand your cues. These are skills that take time and observation to develop. Using and reading non-verbal cues can give you a major advantage in the workplace and beyond.

Love One Another

John 13:35

Every Sole, Soul, needs a Sock!
Every Soul Needs Love!

On Friday, January 3rd, members of the Hannah circle and Anne Murray gathered in the Fellowship Hall to fold socks that were so generously donated by our congregation. They opened plastic bags, cut the wrapping labels and clipped the ties, then folded the socks into neat bundles with Bible verses and our Church information tucked inside. In total, they prepared 277 pairs of socks!

Helping hands folding socks: Sue Rudolph, Sandy Matrick, Paula Smathers, Johnnie McCarter, Debbie Pauzar and Anne Murray.

The Compassion Committee took the bags of folded socks to the Coalition for the Homeless to be distributed that same night. What a blessing the members of the Compassion Committee are! They work tirelessly to reflect God's Light in our community!

Anna Caparis is the coordinator and contact person for the Coalition. A volunteer sign up sheet is posted in the hallway near the church offices. Please consider signing up to volunteer one month. It is a wonderful experience and a great help for the homeless in our community.

And many thanks for the faithful dedication of the Brownie Team who work tirelessly and joyfully every month to prepare a delicious treat for those in need! They are so "sweet", literally and spiritually, in caring deeply about the homeless. Thank you, Wendy Jamison, who is the leader and contact person, Joann Robertson, Dona Stepp, Sevilla Morse, Robin Danley, and Nancy & Mike Galyean.

Dear Congregation, your gifts of love are making a difference in many lives!
 Thanks so much to everyone who contributed socks!

Together, the members of this church are sowing seeds of hope for those in great need!

WPPC Hannah Christian Women's Circle

“Come and See,” ...open the door to a closer walk with Jesus, as we search the scriptures for His Truth, Love and guidance for our daily lives.

The Hannah Circle is a group of women that meets for Bible study and fellowship. We meet the 2nd Monday of each month from Sept. through May, at 6:00 pm in room 301. In December, we have our annual Christmas party full of love, laughter, good food and fun! But our friendship, our serving together, and our prayers continue daily throughout the years.

What makes Hannah Circle so special is that we become “Sisters” who grow spiritually together, pray together and are there for each other. What has held this circle together for more than 40 yrs is the gift of prayer and the love we hold in our hearts for Christ and for one another. We ardently pray for one another, for our church, and for a world that so desperately needs Jesus.

We are “Sisters” in Christ, united in support for one another and for our church, rejoicing in good times, and offering comfort & help in hard times.

If you are new to this church and a bit shy about volunteering, you’ll find many Hannah Sisters are right there working beside you, new friends to help you transition into new situations! Serving the Lord, getting involved in various church activities is a wonderful way to become a part of this church family.

Being an active member of this church leads to lifelong friendships that share a history of wonderful memories. You’ll find a 2nd Home here at WPPC!

Come and see... & experience the love and the joy of Christian Sisterhood!
You are most welcome!

Deacons' Den

Debbie Pauzar

Every day we use keys, car keys, house keys, and a few others, yet we don't think about them until we need them. We simply take it for granted that they are there and at our disposal. But when we can't find them, we suddenly engage in a stressful hunt to locate them. Our peace is temporarily shattered.

Two keys very special to me, fill me with continual peace and joy: the key to my home and the key to this church. They are reminders, assurances, that I belong somewhere, that I am wanted and loved, a part of something bigger than myself.

Jesus lovingly gives us these same assurances. He is the key that turns our darkness into light, the key that unlocks the mystery of the gift of Grace. He is the Keystone, the highest point that holds all the pieces together, the center, the foundational truth and strength of our faith...

Jesus is the most essential, powerful "Key" that we will ever need.

Isaiah 22:22

I will place on his shoulder the key to the house of David; what he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open.

Revelation 3:7

<sup>7</sup> "To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: These are the words of him who is holy and true, who holds the key of David. What he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open.

"The Key of David is a term found in Revelation and Isaiah. A key indicates control or authority; therefore, having the Key of David would give one control of David's domain, i.e., Jerusalem, the City of David, and the kingdom of Israel. The fact that, in Revelation 3:7, Jesus holds this key shows that He is the fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant, the Ruler of the New Jerusalem, and the Lord of the Kingdom of Heaven."

<https://www.gotquestions.org/key-of-David.html>

We have no way to enter God's Kingdom, His home, on our own. But He who made known the end from the beginning, provided those saved by Grace with the "Key" to His Heavenly Home:

Isaiah 33:6

He will be the sure foundation for your times, a rich store of salvation and wisdom and knowledge; the fear, (the awe and reverence,) of the LORD is the key to this treasure.

John 14:6

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

Our Home is with the Lord, with our beloved Savior...

where we are wanted and loved forever!

We know the way home for we have accepted the gift of the one and only Key that will open the door.

This Key, we'll never lose nor ever fail to appreciate, for Love unlocked our hearts to open the door.

John 14:1-3 KJV

<sup>14</sup> Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

<sup>2</sup> In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

<sup>3</sup> And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

Thank You, Lord!

January 26, 2025

Dear Friends,

Christmas may be but a memory for most of us, but Christmas cheer continued through January as our Odesa team took Christmas camps to the orphanage in Pishana and to our families in the villages throughout the month. Packages filled with food and necessities, warm clothes, and rechargeable flashlights had already been delivered via mail to all the families prior to Christmas so they could be enjoyed throughout the holidays. Our Christmas camps provided the opportunity for fellowship and extending our love and care to the families up close and personal. Children and families alike enjoyed stories, songs, games, crafts, and small gifts for all. Since pictures seem to tell it best, please enjoy a peek at the Christmas camps and the blessings that your gifts made possible for our folks.

Although Christmas is a magical time, none of this happened by magic. The Christmas Project could not have been such a great success without you who support us with thoughts, prayers and gifts. Please know that you are an essential part of this mission. Thank you for all you do! Special thanks are also in order for two of our teammates. Oksana, master planner, and Maxim, driver extraordinaire, are largely responsible for the success of the trips to the orphanage and the villages through their leadership. I'm not sure how we would manage without these two special folks. We are so very grateful for them and their selfless service.

As the Christmas Camps were being conducted in the villages, several of the husbands/fathers from the families who are caring for our orphans were called to the war, leaving the women to care for families alone. On a more personal note, three of our young men have now been drafted into the army – Pasha, who has been serving for over a year now, and Maxim and Radik, who have just recently been drafted. All three are former residents of our Boys' Home and each is currently renting to own one of our cottages. Radik joined our staff in the past year, and he and his wife welcomed a baby girl in July. We will miss his presence on our team while he serves.

As Ukraine moves ahead into a new year, war continues to sow uncertainty and trauma. From frequent drone and missile activity and interruptions in utilities, to saying goodbye to loved ones who have been called to serve, everyone is affected all of the time. Those who are serving and those who wait at home for them to return would much appreciate your prayers and positive thoughts. As always, we will continue to love, care for, and support our folks through it all.

With gratitude and love,

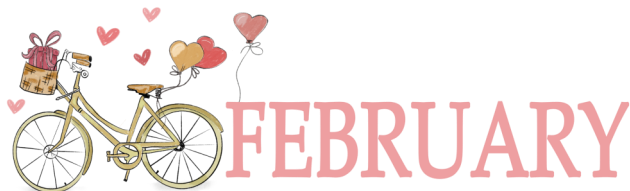

Audrey
