DON'T BE ROOT-BOUND

As a new gardener, Jan Riegenbach used to treat bedding plants with extreme care, setting them into soil without disturbing the roots. Eventually she learned that rough — even ruthless — treatment is better in the long run.

“If the plant has been growing in its pot so long that the roots are circling the bottom, I jab my finger into the bottom of the soil and pull down to untangle the roots,” Riegenbach wrote in her gardening column. “If the whole pot is filled with circling roots, I have to be merciless. I don’t worry if I break some of the roots. That’s better than allowing the roots to continue to circle when the plants are growing in the garden.”

In the same way, it’s easy to grow complacent and inward-focused in our walk with God. But bunched-up roots can’t reach out for sustenance. So for maximum faith growth, dare to let God shake you up from time to time!

How did it get to be June?

I'm not sure what exactly happened, but six months of 2024 have passed by. It's time for summer fun, travel, family and friends, the beach, the springs, the lake, or maybe even there is time for some yard work or cleaning out the garage. However, another thing we can do over the summer is keep reading.

Remember in school when we would get all excited as the last day approached before summer vacation? There were class parties, water days or game days, it was tremendous fun. Then at some point before the final bell, after our desks were cleaned out and just moments before the freedoms of summer ensued, the teacher would hand out a list of books to read over the break. "I don't want your minds turning to mush," she'd say.

Well, to that end, and just before the final bell as we're packed up and ready for summer fun, I thought I would recommend a reading list for the summer. You know—so our brains don't turn to "mush."

1. The Bible - No surprise here as it tops the list. These are a collection of 66 ancient documents that tell us the truth about ourselves and the world we live in.
2. The Spiritual Man, by Watchman Nee. Although a little thick and requiring some unpacking as one reads, this book helps us understand how we are made in God's image. One of our resources this summer as we focus on our spiritual lives.
3. The Forgotten God, by Francis Chan. This book delves into the Holy Spirit and helps us recognize those times when we minimize or ignore or forget about God's Spirit.
4. Dynamics of Spiritual Life, by Richard Lovelace. Another one on the thick side, but a great book about spiritual renewal and the historic witness of Christianity.
5. The Singularity Is Near, by Ray Kurzweil. Although not a book about our faith in Jesus Christ, it ironically is a book of secular faith. It is interesting, concerning, and a must read if we, followers of Jesus, are trying to live in a rapidly changing world with our eyes wide open.
6. Necessary Endings, by Dr. Henry Cloud. This book offers insight into our difficulties adjusting to new ideas or circumstances. It helps us understand our tendencies to hold onto things that ultimately are unhealthy for us and suggests ways to move forward by first ending what is necessary.
7. The Tale of Two Cities, by Charles Dickens. Always good to revisit some classics.
8. The History of Plymouth, by William Bradford.
9. The Odyssey, by Homer. Or if it's raining one day and you're interested in a modern take on the poem, you could watch, "O' Brother Where Art Thou."
10. The Voyage of the Dawn Treader, by C.S. Lewis. A childhood favorite, about a lad named Eustis Clarence Scrub, a little boy who, "almost deserved it..."
11. Now and Not Yet, by Ruth Chou Simmons. This little book helps us when we are endlessly waiting on an answer from God.
12. It's Not Supposed To Be This Way, by Lysa Terkeurst. Disappointment is part of being human, and dealing with those disappointments can be heart breaking. Lysa offers Biblical guidance that helps.
13. The Bible - Begin and end with God's love letter to you.

Happy Reading - Grace and Peace,

Pastor Darren

Picnic and Ice Cream Social

Thursday, June 20
11:30am in Fellowship Hall

On Thursday, June 20 the N&F team will host a picnic and ice cream social in Fellowship Hall. We will serve hot dogs, hamburgers, baked beans and the like. For dessert you can make your own ice cream sundaes.

We will meet at 11:30 in Fellowship Hall. The cost is $15.00. Reservations must be made by Monday, May 17 by calling the church office (407-647-1467) or you may sign the clipboard on the bulletin board in the front office hallway. As always, you are invited to bring your own lunch and join us around the tables.

Come and join us for a time of fellowship. It will be wonderful to enjoy a picnic in air conditioned splendor and no bugs as we gather to celebrate Summer. We look forward to seeing you there as a neighbor, a friend, or both. We encourage you to bring a donation of pasta for our local food bank.

Watch the WPPC emails and weekly bulletins for news of other Summer programs.

BACK to SCHOOL

BACK TO SCHOOL SUPPLIES | JUNE 30TH — AUGUST 4TH

For many years, we have supported Aloma and Killarney Elementary Schools in their efforts to properly supply their students for a successful school year.

Killarney requests:

- Children's underwear for boys & girls in sizes 4T - 8
- Ankle socks in sizes kids large & adult

Aloma requests:

Over ear wired headphones with mic as every student uses a computer and headphone every day. Many parents cannot afford to purchase or replace headphones. The headphones Aloma prefers are from Five Below Discount Store and cost $5.55 each. If members of WPPC are unable to pick headphones up at Five Below, Compassion Committee will provide a table in the narthex after the 10:30am service from June 23rd to August 4th to accept donations toward headphones which Compassion will purchase and deliver.

Please join Compassion Committee in supporting these two schools "Back to School" needs. Collection for underwear, socks, and headphones will be from June 30th to August 4th with red bins in the office hallway and narthex.

RELATIONSHIPS IN ACTION
SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

9:15AM IN ROOM 301

JUNE 2, 9, 16 & 23

The RinA class will continue it's "Summer at the Movies" with the 2007 film , "Freedom Writers."

In 1992, there were over 120 murders in Long Beach, California in the months following the Rodney King riots. Gang violence and racial tensions reached an all-time high.

In 1994, recently graduated teacher Erin Gruwell chooses to teach at Wilson High School in Long Beach which has recently experienced "volunteer integration" where the school has lost 75% of its "honor" students in the past two years. She is assigned four classes of Freshman English with 150 students; reading scores in the 5th and 6th grade level; some are just out of Juvenile Hall; many have Probations Officers; several will be wearing ankle bracelets to monitor their whereabouts. Most students ride city busses 90 minutes with three bus changes to and from school.

Two-time Oscar winner Hilary Swank stars in this gripping story of inner-city kids raised on drive-by shootings and hard-core attitude—and the teacher who gives them the one thing they need most: a voice of their own. Dropped into the free-fire zone of a school torn by violence and racial tension, teacher Erin Gruwell battles an uncaring system in a fight to make the classroom matter in her students' lives. Now, telling their own stories, and hearing the stories of others, a group of supposedly "unteachable" teens will discover the power of tolerance, reclaim their shattered lives and change their world.

THE RINA CLASS INVITES YOU TO JOIN US FOR "SUMMER AT THE MOVIES" IN ROOM 301.

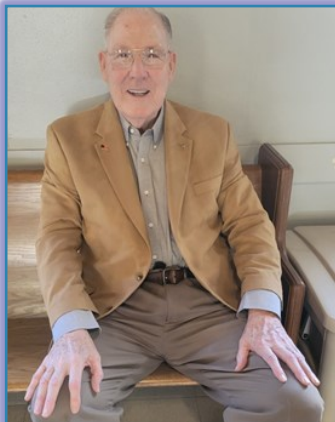

Welcome New Members

God is continuing to bless WPPC with new members! We welcome all of the folks below to our WPPC family. If you haven't yet, please introduce yourselves to these new family members and make them feel welcome!

Carel Thompson

Joined 12/10/23

Carel joined WPPC shortly after moving from the Atlanta GA area to Florida in August 2023 to be close to his son and his wife who live in Winter Park. Carel's wife Caroline died in January, 2023 after 65 years of marriage. They have two children, a daughter and a son, three grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Carel grew up in West Virginia. He met his wife Caroline in high school and married her as she was attending the University of South Carolina while he was in the US Air Force. During their marriage they were members of the United Methodist Church.

Carel chose WPPC because of the great messages of Dr. Bess and the exceptional music. After graduating from college Carel spent 45 years in retail management with the W. T. Grant Co., Roses department stores, and Lowe's Hardware stores. Carel loves all sports and card games, especially bridge.

WHY GOING TO CHURCH Is Good For You

Many psychologists agree that going to church, or any religious service, can promote mental health benefits.

Studies show people that attend church regularly tend to be mentally healthier — less depressed, less anxious. They feel a sense of belonging, prayer being an important part of this.

The important distinction — it isn't just believing, but it's belonging — attending church services, being part of a community fellowship, Bible studies, all those things together help to foster mental fitness.

Those who do attend church and services, are actually much happier by and large, and people who profess ideologies that look for exterior blame are, by contrast, less happy. And even such things as post-traumatic stress disorder and suicide rates — those things are all much lower among church-goers.

Here are some reasons why going to church can have a positive impact:

- ◆ Community and Belonging: Places of worship provide a sense of community and belonging. Being part of a supportive group can help counter feelings of isolation and loneliness, which are important for mental well-being.
- ◆ Stress Reduction: Attending regular worship services has been associated with reduced stress responses. Research has shown that it can lead to lower cortisol levels, changes in stress hormones, and improvements in immune function.
- ◆ Longevity and Health: Consistent church attendance has been linked to up to 35% reduced mortality. People who attend religious services regularly tend to live longer, have greater success in quitting smoking, and experience less alcohol abuse and illicit drug use.
- ◆ Depression Prevention: Studies have found that going to church correlates with lower rates of depression. Isolation and withdrawal are hallmark features of depression, and being part of a religious community can help combat these feelings.
- ◆ Purpose and Meaning: Engaging in religious practices can provide a sense of purpose and meaning. Having a spiritual connection can contribute to overall mental well-being.

So, if you're wondering whether to attend church, remember it's not only good for your soul, but also beneficial for your mental health!

What does a biblical friendship look like?

You can talk about God's word together (Proverbs 27:17)
 You celebrate life's wins together (Song of Songs 1:4)
 You share your earthly belongings (Luke 16:9)
 You help carry life's burdens (Galatians 6:2)
 You remind each other of eternity (Hebrews 10:25)
 You love them unconditionally (John 15:12)
 You push them towards good deeds (Hebrews 10:24)
 You pray and experience God together (Matthew 18:20)
 You hold them accountable to die to self (James 5:16)

Deacons' Den

Debbie Paugar

Recently many of our church family volunteered to help move the library to a new location by donating their time and talents to serve both the Lord and the needs of our church and preschool. Pastor Darren and Sara Van Arsdel not only led our group of volunteers, but also worked tirelessly helping to do the work. One of the jobs was to sort books, deciding which to keep and which to donate due to the limited space that would be available in the new room. That was a difficult job because there were so many books full of wonderful stories! What wasn't difficult was coming to the realization that our church library is a treasure! So many great books available, just waiting to be read!

A truly good book pulls us into the story about each of the characters' lives. Whether the story is a true story or a fictional one, the writer captures our imagination, engages our feelings and invites us to share in the characters' challenges and choices as we learn from their mistakes and cheer them on when they triumph over difficulties. And if you are like me, you desire a happy ending, circumstances overcome, and a final resolution of problems solved.

The greatest true story ever written, is God's Story, the Bible. What an amazing Story about who God is, His Holiness and how He interacts with His creation. An exciting Story filled with mysteries, intrigues, twists and turns, battles, miracles, and love! A Story that has the answer to every question we could ever ask! How-to-live instructions and plans of action for every circumstance we will ever encounter! The Story that reveals the end from the beginning - The Story of HOPE for all mankind.

Hope is what the world so desperately needs. Hope that there is a better life in the here and now, and more powerfully, the HOPE of the beautiful eternal life God has planned for us. A hope that longs for all the pain we suffer, the injustice, the sinful evil in this world, will finally come to an end. A hope that becomes a certainty as the story unfolds.

Therefore, we as Christians, are in the "family business" so to speak, of giving His Hope to a fallen world through the stories our lives tell. So, what we believe, think, say and do as the 'characters' in God's Story that He is writing, is of vital importance. As we pray and work with the Lord, we are helping to write the happy ending of mankind's story, culminating in the fulfilled HOPE through Jesus Christ...the new Eternal Story God has written and foretold:

This is The Hope, the Certainty, the Assurance of what is to come...

HIS ETERNAL KINGDOM

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes.

There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain

for the old order of things has passed away."

Rev 21:4

God is pleased to make all things new.

He is pleased to ensure that justice will triumphant over all evil.

He will settle all accounts.

He is pleased to offer eternal life to all those who choose to accept His Son as their Savior, Jesus Christ, who is The King of Kings and Lord of Lords, who commands us to love, believe and trust in Him with all our being and to love one another.

Matt 22:36-40

What better way to obey His commandment to love and to be an important part of the His Story than to obey His commandment to love, every day, in every chapter of your life?
