FROM THE PASTOR

For many, this time of year is marked by the numerous sporting events available to us. You can watch baseball, softball, basketball, even more football, alongside auto racing, golf, tennis, and soccer, but did you know there are other sporting events happening as well? How about, this year's Cheese Rolling event or Toe Wrestling, Tuna Throwing, Pooh Sticks, Man versus Horse Marathon, Bull Running, Tomato Tossing, Human Tower Building, and no one would want to miss the Wife Carrying Championship. All of these sporting events happen during March. No wonder it's called March Madness.

However, if you get tired of sports madness, come and join us for a peaceful Sunday worship, as we continue a marathon of sorts—known also as, our Lenten Journey. There are also Wednesday fellowship opportunities to have dinner, participate in a program and still have time to get to choir rehearsal.

In addition to these Wednesday activities, The Orlando Big Band will be here Sunday March 12th for "Swingtime in Springtime," and on Sunday March 19th the Community Life Committee is hosting a lite luncheon following worship for all of our new members. Please make plans to attend these, enjoy a great time, and say hello to our many new faces.

Of course, it might not be Tomato Tossing or Pooh Sticks (Does anybody know what that actually is?). But there are many other activities taking place throughout this month at our church. You can go to our church website www.winppc.org for a calendar of events, and we are always wanting to add new things. If you would like to host a small group or have an event idea, maybe even like Toe Wrestling or Cheese Rolling, please let us know.

In the meantime, blessings on your Lenten Journey and may the peace of Christ which surpasses all understanding be with you.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Darren

5 CENTS A MEAL - SPECIAL OFFERING UPDATE

On January 22nd, we received the first of four collections for this year for 5 Cents A Meal. The amount received was $631.37, which has been sent to the Central Florida Presbytery PATH Program (Presbyterian Answer To Hunger). Presbytery disburses these monies among the Second Harvest Food Bank (25%), Society of St. Andrew (SOSA) (21%), Alliance for International Reforestation (AIR) in Guatemala (21%), and Dan and Elizabeth Turk, PC (USA) mission workers in Madagascar (21%). The balance covers administrative costs. Thank you to all who were able to support this offering and the agencies that are served. ~ Compassion Committee

SOUPER BOWL SUNDAY

The collection of soup and other cans for Souper Bowl Sunday was a huge success! Nancy and Mike Galyean gathered all the groceries in two vehicles and delivered them to the Christian Service Center on Monday morning. The staff at CSC were delighted: "Those folks at Winter Park Presbyterian Church are very giving people." We can all agree with that. ~Compassion Committee

MEMORY LOSS CAN BE A SCARY INTRUSION INTO OUR LIVES. BUT WITH GOD, THERE IS ALWAYS HOPE AND HELP!

Isn't it wonderful how God brings people into our lives that in retrospect seem to reveal layers upon layers of His Divine Plan? A few years ago at the YMCA, I met and became friends with Lydia Demola. She is one of those rare Christians whose whole being is centered on the Lord, a living gift of love and kindness.

During the course of our friendship, Lydia gave me a copy of a book that her daughter, Debra Edgar, wrote entitled Save Your Memory, Renew, Restore, Remember. As I read it, I was not only filled with new insights into memory problems, I realized the Divine Hand of God had inspired her to write this book! God partners with her to share important information that simultaneously quiets our fear.

I went to All Saints Church in Winter Park where Lydia volunteers in their gift shop to see if I could purchase a copy for our church library, but instead she generously donated this copy for our church!

Her daughter's heart is like her mother's! When you read this book, the Lord's love and truth shines throughout. It will bring comfort and much needed help for both the person suffering from memory loss and those who love and support them.

Her daughter includes the words her mother taught all her children on the book's Dedication page, then goes on to reflect those words through the book!

shine a light on the importance of treating the whole person, provide hope to those who treat or struggle with memory loss, and inspire others to make a difference regardless of distance. May His light shine in every action and every word."

If you or someone you love are having memory problems, check out this amazing book from our church library.

Book description: "Debra Edgar, Ed.D., CCC-SLP Dr. Debra Edgar is a professor of Communication Disorders and Curriculum & Instruction at the University of Central Florida. She has spent the last 25 years pursuing her dream of helping others understand the magnitude and miracle of our brain. Dr. Edgar is the founder and director of Quality Telepractice, a private practice that provides Speech & Cognitive Therapy remotely. With her Florida SLP License and American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Certification, she has extensive experience in a variety of settings including hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, private practice, public schools, and outpatient clinic settings."

"Whether spending time with her family, teaching at the university, mentoring graduate clinicians, encouraging loved ones, or working side-by-side with those with memory loss, Debra's goal is that God is glorified in all that she says and does. She hopes to

LIBRARY NEWS DORIS ANGUISH, LIBRARIAN

Of the upper 12 windows in the sanctuary the one we learn about this month is about Philip. In the first three gospels Philip's name (lover of horses) is mentioned only in the lists of the Twelve. John's gospel tells us about Philip. A fellow Galilean of John and his brother James, Philip came from Bethsaida as did the two brothers. There they did know one another. John writes about incidents about this friend, Philip, whom he came to know even better as a follower of Jesus.

Some of the things John remembered: When Philip became a disciple he found his friend Nathanael and invited him to come see Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. Moses and the prophets wrote about Jesus. John also remembered that day on the hillside near the Sea of Galilee where multitudes had come to hear Jesus. There Jesus turned to Philip and asked, "Where are we to find bread to feed these people?" Perhaps he asked Philip because it was Philip's task to provide bread for their small band. John also remembers during the Passover Feast Greek visitors in Jerusalem came to Philip (the disciple with a Greek name) thinking him a Greek and asked to see Jesus.

The last we hear about Philip is at the Last Supper, on that dangerous night of the secret meal in the upper room. It was Philip who asked Jesus the question inscribed on this window: Show us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

From these scriptural insights we see a man with a calculator-quick mind counting the cost of feeding the multitudes, a spiritually sensitive devout man waiting for the Messiah, and a timid reserved man who took the Greek visitors not to Jesus but to Andrew first. Though probably not a leader, Philip was the indispensable worker needed everywhere.

We have these few gospel glimpses and then Philip remains anonymous in the rest of the New Testament. Legends and traditions show that he brought the Gospel to Scythia, Armenia, Gaul, and Africa. He died a martyr in Hierapolis. In this window the symbol for Philip is a budded cross and two small loaves of bread. The loaves identify him with the feeding of the multitudes and the cross signifies the manner of his death.

Philip saith unto him, "Lord, show us the father, and it sufficeth us." John 14:8

Sunday School

Relationships in Action (RinA) • Room 301 @ 9:15 AM

Relationships in Action is a Sunday School class that studies “with the Bible in one hand and the newspaper in the other.” They are interested in Biblical, historical, and current social issues in terms of how they affect the lives of others and how we, as followers of Christ, can be a factor in positive change. Everyone is welcome.

3/5: Stained Glass Windows in Cathedrals through the Ages

The history of stained-glass windows in Europe’s Cathedrals from the Gothic period to the Twentieth century will be presented in the RinA Class on March 5th. For example, England’s Canterbury Cathedral’s use of stained glass will be illustrated with pictures, and the last project of Marc Chagall at St. Stephan’s in Mainz, Germany will be illustrated and discussed by Reta Jackson.

3/12: Spiritual Conversations with Sue Rudolph

The Relationships in Action Sunday School class continues their “spiritual conversations” series with a visit from long-time WPPC member Sue Rudolph.

3/19: Barbara Sayles—PATH Partners

Every quarter we take up a special Five Cents A Meal offering for PATH (the Presbyterian Answer To Hunger). Barbara Sayles will enlighten us on where that money goes and who our PATH partners are. Barbara is the former Florida Regional Director of the Society of St. Andrew, a past WP Presbyterian Church Director of Christian Education, and an all around good person.

3/26: Anne Hallum—AIR

Ann Hallum, Founding President of the Alliance for International Reforestation, will update us on AIR’s ongoing work in Guatemala. To date, AIR has planted over 7 million trees, built 880 fuel-efficient stoves and trained 5,000 farm families in agroforestry. Come and find out if you are an aspirant for a mission trip to aid AIR.

Dr. Anne Hallum, Founder of A.I.R. (Alliance for International Reforestation) will speak to the Relationships in Action class on March 26 in Room 301 at 9:15 a.m. Please join us to hear the latest information about this award-winning nonprofit that improves human and environmental health in Guatemala.

In 1991, Anne Hallum was a political science professor at Stetson University in Florida, going through a difficult personal time of loneliness and loss. When Stetson announced that they needed a professor to take a few students on a trip to Guatemala Anne recklessly volunteered. She had never had a passport to travel anywhere, she didn't speak Spanish, and she knew little about Guatemala. But she learned quickly—and was haunted by the rural hunger and malnutrition she saw in Escuintla Guatemala, by the barren mountainsides and mudslides everywhere, by the strength of the people and the inspirational words of Padre Andres Girón. As Anne says, "God rescued me in Guatemala, and I found his purpose for my life."

"AIR's mission is to implement educational programs, reforestation, and regenerative farming methods in Central America in order to protect water sources, build soil health, prevent mudslides and erosion, prevent lung disease and provide more nutritious crops—while protecting the Earth. We choose Hope."

February 9, 2023

Dear Friends,

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

(Matthew 22:39)

When I think of February, I think of hearts and sweetness and love. So what better time to send you a big THANK YOU and lots of love for all the love you bestowed on our people in Ukraine last year and especially at Christmastime. I am truly speechless at your kindness and generosity.

We are quickly approaching the year anniversary of the beginning of Russia's war with Ukraine (February 24). It has been a terrible year in so many ways. Unspeakable things have happened to so many innocent people. However, it has also been an awe-inspiring year, one in which I watched people loving people and giving to others in ways unmatched in previous years.

At the beginning of March last year, when I put out a call for assistance, you didn't hesitate. We began helping local Odesa folks like never before. In November, when I outlined our needs for the Christmas Project, I simply told you that we hoped to help 200-300 families. I had forgotten to do the math in my head. One night while lying in bed, I put the numbers together and realized that I was asking for a significant amount indeed. I knew that many people had already given and I wondered in my mind how this would ever come to pass. How would we help so many people? Would we have to help fewer people? Would we need to give less to all? Oh, me of little faith! You answered in such a big way that none of our folks went without or with less. So, instead of filling this letter with words, I'm going to fill it with photos of those receiving our gifts.

This is a very small sampling of photos of the Christmas Project and assistance throughout 2022. I wouldn't have space to show you pictures of everyone we have been providing to for almost a year now. The people in these pictures are orphans, widows, pensioners, young mothers and children, and simply people who need help. They are people like you and me, people who are accustomed to helping others, people who are not accustomed to needing help. This is a humbling experience for them, especially knowing that there is no end in sight and that their need will continue.

So, again, I say thank you for all you have done, for all you are doing, and for all that you will continue to do for our brothers and sisters in Ukraine for as long as we must.

Love never ends.
(I Corinthians 13:8)

With gratitude and love,
Audrey
