THANKSGIVING HUMOR

Why did the turkey decline dessert?
Because it was stuffed.

Why did the turkey cross the road twice?
To prove he wasn't a chicken.

What smells the best at Thanksgiving dinner?
Your nose.

Why didn't the chef season the turkey?
There wasn't enough thyme.

Why did the turkey leave the band?
People were fighting over the drumsticks.

THE JOY OF GIVING

Having been a Presbyterian pastor for over 50 years, as is our tradition, this season of the year is always a time when we make our financial faith commitments for the year to come. I'm sure it coincides with a time when all the crops had been gathered in and there was a genuine spirit of thanksgiving and gratitude to God for God's provisions.

Most Presbyterian churches also are projecting their financial needs for the coming year and are building their budgets. For the pastor and the people this can be the most uncomfortable time of the year. Most pastors are uncomfortable asking for their people's financial commitments, fearing that it appears like they are trying to raise their own salaries. Often the people in the pew are uncomfortable seeing their pastor uncomfortable. Add to that the old perception that churches specialize in motivating by guilt.

I'll never forget after preaching a sermon on faith and giving on a commitment Sunday, getting two very different responses from two friends. One asked me, "Why did you beat around the bush? Just come out and ask us to give." The other asked, "Why did you hit us over the head with guilt?"

With all that said, I have come to look forward to this season and Commitment Sunday. This positive anticipation comes from the understanding that many scholars say that Jesus talked about money more than any other subject.

I also have come to the realization that our giving should be out of joy and not guilt. In my own life and family, as well as the loves of countless others, I have seen the joy of giving being the greatest motivation as they thanked God for God's love and grace.

That sense of joy in giving comes from the idea that I am not giving primarily to a church, denomination, budget, person, or human institution. I am giving to the One who is called "The Giver of All Good Gifts. No person, church, or human institution is perfect. I will always find something with which I don't agree and can use as an excuse for not giving. But, if I'm primarily giving to the God from whom all blessings flow, that's different.

There is also joy in giving to something or someone you love and in whom you are investing yourself. You are actively participating in the life of a person, a project, or ministry. Your love is being translated tangibly into action. Case in point, Alice and I moved to Winter Park to be near our granddaughter and her parents. We have found indescribable joy in financially being a part of her life and development. The joy of that investment in her is among the most meaningful we experience in our lives.

Alice and I have found that same kind of joy in committing a tithe or 10% of our income to God through the church and other ministries we believe in. At both worship services on November 12th, we will have the joy of making financial faith promises to God for 2024. I'm looking forward to that opportunity and hope you will join us. If you can't be present, you can bring or send your commitment cards to the church office. Prayerfully consider what God might be calling you to commit.

The sermon for November 12th will come from II Corinthians 9:6-7 - "Remember this: Whoever saves sparingly will reap sparingly, and whoever saves generously will reap generously. Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

May God bless you and make you a blessing,

Jim Capps

Dear Church Family,

November is a time to reflect on how thankful we are for God's blessings. We have so much to be truly thankful for. Together, we share the blessing of our church home.

First, we are incredibly blessed to be His chosen, adopted children, co-heirs with God's Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ, forgiven of all our sins through Grace. As we wait to be with the Lord in heaven, the Lord has provided us with a church home here on earth where we can experience glimpses of what heaven's eternal fellowship will be like.

We are so blessed to have this church home, which is God's House, His Holy Temple. We have the history and beauty of our church, the love, and deeds we share here.

We are blessed to have such beautiful music fill our church home, bells that ring which also witness to our secular neighbors, the multi-talented, awesome choir, soloists, and musicians.

We have the blessing of all of those who serve the Lord, who give of their tithes, time, and talents, not out of obligation, but because their hearts reflect love for the Lord, our church and for those in the world who are in great need. We have a wonderful administrative staff and a Pre-School that is so successful, they have waiting lists.

And we are blessed to have Pastor Bess to connect, to lead and nurture all these blessings as well as his wonderful sermons which glorify the Lord. The sermons, the Bible reading, and the music all contribute to the very reason we come to church: to worship the Lord together, to hear His Word of Truth, to learn and grow in our knowledge of Him.

A church that worships the Lord together, prays to the Lord together, sings about the Lord together, works for the Lord together, stands on the Word of God as truth in all things together, seeks the Lord's will together and LOVES each other as the Lord LOVES us, is a faithful church home of the Lord's.

God has been so good to us, dear friends. So together, let us honor and love the Lord with our whole hearts, united with Him in the Spirit of Holy Righteousness and love for one another.

Jesus wrote letters to 7 churches in the book of Revelation... if He were to write a letter to our church... may He always find in us qualities that would honor His Holy name.

May we strive to please Him in all we do in humble gratitude for His Loving Grace.

- A. alms
- B. praise

CHRISTIAN SYMBOL

ROCK — We call Christ "the Solid Rock," remembering his parable about the wise and foolish builders (Matthew 7:24). Jesus changed his disciple Simon's name to Peter, meaning rock, saying he'd build his church "on this rock" (Matthew 16:18).

Although some Christians understand Peter to be the rock-foundation of Christ's church, others interpret the foundation as faith in Christ, which, Jesus said, was revealed to Peter by God.
