Relationships in Action (RinA) • Room 301 @ 9:15 AM

Relationships in Action is a Sunday School class that studies “with the Bible in one hand and the newspaper in the other.” They are interested in Biblical, historical, and current social issues in terms of how they affect the lives of others and how we, as followers of Christ, can be a factor in positive change. Everyone is welcome.

9/3: Labor Day Weekend

No class this Sunday.

9/10: Continuation of Faith Journeys with Phyllis Woods

Phyllis will be talking about her growing up years and the impact that faith in Christ has had on her throughout her life.

9/17: Planning

Planning session for October and November classes.

9/24: Report on Peru Mission with Barbara Sayles

"I thank my God every time I remember you."

Philippians 1:3

Paul wrote these words to a group of people in a Roman city called Philippi. It was a proud city with a great history. By the time Paul wrote these words, Philippi was a primary location where Roman soldiers could reside following their service to the Empire. Officers were often granted tracts of land in Philippi as reward for faithful service. It was so popular and filled with former soldiers, guards, officers, and even officials, Philippi received the title, "Little Rome."

Other than a few names of both women and men, we really do not have any record of who was part of the church at Philippi. However, Paul gives thanks for all of them. The very next verse says, "In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy." This letter is also referred to as Paul's letter of joy. Indeed, it has a very uplifting and encouraging tone throughout. Paul talks about his love for each of them. He addresses the love God has for all of us, perhaps even singing the Christ hymn recorded in chapter two. He expresses love and well wishes to his friends and encourages them to remain faithful.

In fact, there is so much joy expressed in this letter, it can be easy to overlook the concern Paul is having to address. The trouble in the church at Philippi was centered upon the opposition they faced, and the importance of remaining united amid internal and external challenges. For example, we know from letters like Jude, by this time people were saying all sorts of things about Jesus. Of course, by definition, this also led to divisions within the church. To be honest, many of these divisions still persist to this day.

Nonetheless, Paul is trying to encourage unity of the body during times of opposition and even oppression. It makes one wonder, did Paul really pray for everyone with joy? I think he did. It's not easy. In fact, the opposite is true. Praying, seeing others as Christ does, attempting to live as Christ teaches us is extremely difficult. It's much more natural to point out the faults of others. It's much more expedient to write others off who we judge as different from us. Most of the time, and unfortunately, this is our default position. It's just easier.

However, the longer I live, the more I encounter others, people just like me—some days at their absolute worst and other days at their absolute best—I'm becoming increasingly convinced—God's not into easy! No, it's hard to give thanks and rejoice for every person, but although hard or difficult it doesn't mean it's impossible. Jesus said with people things can be impossible, "but with God all things are possible." (Matthew 19:26) On our own, left to our own devices, we're never going to learn what it means to give thanks for people who oppose and oppress us. However, with God this is possible.

I think this is a life long process of learning and I'm grateful for that, because over time the impossible does become possible, It means we have far more in common than what divides us. And it means that we can give thanks, remain united, and even learn what it means to love one another, expressing joy in our prayers—even amidst the conflicts that still threaten our unity and persist within our world and within the church today.

I remember all of you in my prayers, giving God thanks for each of you,

-Pastor Darren

Alliance for International Reforestation (AIR) is dedicated to assisting local communities in Central America to conserve their environment through reforestation, sustainable farming, and education. Well over 7 million trees have been planted to prevent mudslides and many fuel efficient ovens have been built. An environmental curriculum is used in classrooms reaching thousand of school children. For sale: Crafts, Native Items, & Plants.

Black Bee Honey is about creating a healthy community, physically, socially, and economically by investing in underserved youth who will later invest in the community. Their mission is to provide Parramore youth an opportunity to operate and manage their own business, address the food desert issue of the community, and provide residents of the area with high quality, nutritional honey. For sale: Honey

Blossom Artisanal is a unique work opportunity, employing adults and teenagers with developmental disabilities. They produce amazing all-natural artisanal products. Employees gain meaningful employment and learning skills that last a lifetime, including hand producing their soaps, candles, and bath teas. They learn about packaging, shipping, and sales. All products are produced in Orlando.

Equal Exchange offers a way for you to help farmers and their communities build a better future. This project enables small coffee farmers to earn a fair price for their products. For sale: Regular & Decaf Coffees, Organic Teas, and Chocolate Bars.

Heifer Project International (HPI) works in partnership with others to alleviate hunger, poverty, and environmental degradation by helping families become self-sufficient. A low income family is gifted an animal appropriate to their area and is given intensive training in the care and use of the animal products. In turn, they "pass on the Gift" to others in their community.

Rafiki Foundation serves 10 countries with over 15 million women whose husbands are either deceased or absent. Through the work of their hands, these ladies create products that both preserve their cultural traditions and provide them with a source of income. Rafiki buys their products and brings them back to the United States to sell at their retail locations. Through this transaction, women who could otherwise not find work have a steady means of supporting their families. Every purchase you make ensures the continuation of this work and provides thousands more widows with hope for the future. For sale: Artisan Crafts

Please join us in supporting the following organizations:

Society of Saint Andrews (SOSA) provides food for the body, God's word for the spirit, community of love for the heart, and opportunity for those who desire action. They feed the hungry all year long by saving fresh produce that would otherwise go to waste and giving it to the needy.

Ten Thousand Villages works with third world country villages to create authentic handicrafts as a way to pass on their culture to the next generation. By selling their handicrafts, they help artisans provide food, house, education, and healthcare for their families. For Sale: Jewelry, Holiday Items, Toys, and more.

Transitions Orphan Assistance Foundation (TOAF) has had a very hands-on, very personal mission in Odesa, Ukraine since 2008. Orphans in Odesa age-out of the orphanage between the ages of 14 and 16. Many of these orphans have no place to go and no one to care. In response, TOAF offers mentoring, assistance with food, clothing, medicine and education, as well as birthday and holiday celebrations. A large portion of their mission is to provide safe housing and family living opportunities for older teens and young orphans. They have helped to establish and maintain three transitional homes with house parents that serve younger orphans. They have also built six cottages available to young adult orphans working on independent living. Since February 24, 2022, they have also been contributing to the war effort by providing packages of food and necessities several times per week to those in need.

Women's Bean Project is located in Denver, Colorado. They hire women experiencing chronic unemployment. Participants in the program are paid as they develop job readiness skills, discover their talents, and strengthen their confidence. They can then begin to support themselves and their families, break the cycle of poverty, and serve as role models for future generations. For Sale: Simple to make mixes, such as Soups, Chili, Cornbread, Cookies, Teas, Popcorn, and Dog Treats.

Zantoun Olive Oil is a non-profit volunteer organization registered in Canada to import and sell symbolic products from or about Palestine to create awareness for a just peace for Palestine-Israel. They wish to promote peace and understanding through public awareness and education of Palestinian society, history, culture and art. They also wish to provide assistance to initiatives which promote humanitarian, education, culture and peace links with Palestine, especially as they may relate to Palestinian youth.

Welcome New Members

Once again this year, WPPC has been blessed with a wonderful group of new members, and beginning this month we will celebrate and introduce Covenanter readers to those who have joined this year. This month we are delighted to introduce new members Frances Swope, Brandon St. John, and Mary Rogers. If you haven't yet had the opportunity, please introduce yourself to these folks and make them feel welcome!

Frances H. Swope | Joined 1/15/23

Frances Harnsberger Swope moved to Westminster Baldwin Park in January 2022 following the death of her husband of 60 years, Donald E. Swope, Presbyterian minister, honorably retired, in Sebring, Florida. Frances is the mother of two children, George (Anastasia) in New Jersey, and Sarah Swope Padron (Erik) of Sebring; grandmother of Ellanna Swope, Victoria I. Padron, and Marcus V. Padron.

Frances taught in Virginia, West Virginia, and Florida. She likes people, music, reading, various kinds of needlework singing, bridge, exploring places in the great Orlando area.

What brought her to Winter Park Presbyterian Church are coming here for meetings with her husband plus her family connection to this congregation: her cousin Cynthia Harnsberger Wright, who lives in Virginia, is the last living charter member of this church.

Brandon St. John | Joined 5/7/23

Brandon is 36 years old, and was born and raised in Orlando, FL. His parents brought him to WPPC as a child. He attended Winter Park High School and then UCF, majoring in Hospitality Management.

Starting in 2006, he was employed at Universal Orlando Resort, where he met Mary Rogers, and stayed with the company until he was affected by the COVID layoffs. He currently works for the family business, American Food Equipment & Supply as a Salesman and Office Manager, and he also dabbles in Real Estate on the side!

In his spare time, he really enjoys going to the movies, playing board games, reading fantasy novels, and attending pop-culture conventions.

Mary Rogers | Joined 5/7/23

Mary grew up in Panama City, Florida. She moved to Orlando to attend UCF and has stuck around ever since.

She worked previously at Universal Orlando, where she met Brandon St. John. She currently works as an Environmental Specialist with the Florida Department of Environmental Protection.

Her hobbies include board games, sewing, and reading; she typically enjoys reading fantasy or sci-fi books.

WEDNESDAY NIGHTS TOGETHER KICKS OFF SEPTEMBER 20TH!

Programs this year include travelogues from church members, senior and cyber safety from WPPD, and small group discussions led by members of the Seekers class.

We will kick off our first week with a potluck. Please bring a dish to share and enjoy fellowship with us as we enjoy all the wonderful programs.

SESSION 1	DINNER	SESSION 2
4:30pm	5:25pm	6:10pm

Although there is no charge for our potluck, please RSVP to the church office so we can prepare the room. Weekly menus and programs will be included in the bulletin and WPPC Happenings. We hope to see you there!

VBS CAMP

What a wonderful week! VBS Camp was a success and the children had a great time. A big thank you to all the staff and volunteers who worked so hard. Frank Jamison has posted his pictures at <https://www.winppcphotos.org/Vacation-Bible-School-7-2428-2023>. Frank also has a section on our website with pictures he has taken over the years. PRESCHOOL UPDATE

The preschool year is off to a great start! They have opened a new toddler classroom, hired more teachers, and have some fun events planned already for the year, including Spirit Nights, with the first one taking place on September 20th. Visit Blaze Pizza in Winter Park (501 N. Orlando Ave.) from 4-8pm, mention the school, and part of the proceeds will be donated to our wonderful preschool!

BACK TO SCHOOL DRIVE A TREMENDOUS SUCCESS!

The donations were delivered on Monday, August 7, to Killarney Elementary by Bonnie Gaughan and to Aloma Elementary by Nancy Galyean.

WPPC continues our support of Aloma and Killarney Elementary Schools in their efforts to properly supply their students for a successful school year. Both schools requested we collect children's underwear for boys and girls in various sizes.

The donations were displayed August 6th on two long tables in Fellowship Hall. There were about 90 packages collected; each containing between 6 and 12 pairs of underwear. The donations were sorted by size and gender and divided in half. Each school receives about 45 packages in various sizes; all sizes were represented. Rosanna from Killarney has expressed her appreciation for the huge donation. She appreciates the support for Killarney and looks forward to a great year.

The generosity of the WPPC congregation is amazing. God certainly had His hand in the purchasing of this underwear! Blessings to all who donated!

If you missed the donation period and would still like to donate, please contact Bonnie Gaughan at 407-463-9068.

Sarah Giesler, Registrar at Aloma Elementary, happily accepts donations from WPPC.

PEACEMAKING OFFERING

WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY—OCTOBER 1ST

World Communion Sunday is October 1st. It's exciting to think we'll be sharing the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper with Christians worldwide!

On that day we will collect your offering for Peacemaking, one of the four Special Offerings of the PC (USA). Our partners in the Presbytery, Synod and General Assembly will use 75% of this offering for various peacemaking projects throughout the world. The Compassion Committee has selected IDignity (<https://idignity.org/>) to be the local recipient of 25% of our collection. This program was founded by members of five downtown Orlando churches in 2008 to assist the disadvantaged in Central Florida to navigate the complexities of obtaining their personal identification. The documents IDignity obtains on behalf of their clients enable them to apply for employment or school, secure access to shelters, vote, seek help from social service programs, open a bank account or cash a check, secure housing, or overcome many obstacles to becoming self-sufficient. The cost to obtain these documents is high and demand for these services has yet to ebb. Volunteers serve 200-250 people in need every month. This connects to the global witness of Christ's peace.

Thank you for your generosity and donating to this Special Offering, furthering our Christian connection to those in our community who are less fortunate than we are. Please check the Peacemaking Offering on your pew envelope. The church office will also accept your donations by mail or on-line.

Peace I leave you, My peace I give to you.

-John 14:27

The Compassion Committee thanks you!

This past week I decided to finally tackle the unpleasant job of cleaning out the unnecessary and the out of date from my filing cabinet. I've been working on it for days on end and still not finished. But what a joy it is to be making progress. Along the way, I happened to also find some files that contained things I wanted to save, things I'd forgotten, things I still cherish and...bittersweet memories.

The hardest files to go through had to do with my son who passed away so long ago when he was only 22. One of his files was labeled Funeral. I had not opened that file once since the day I had put everything in there. It was in that file where I found some of those bittersweet memories...and some surprises that warmed my heart.

I held in my hand the Guest Book and read all the names of those who attended and were so kind to take the time to write their names inside. As I read, I was surprised to recognize names of people that are today dear friends from this church, people I didn't really know that well then. Wade Edwards' name was the first one signed. Sandy and Ed Matrick, now such dear friends, came to a funeral for grieving parents they did not know very well. As I read so many names so precious to me in my life today, I felt a sense of peace, a gift from God.

I also saw names written that included the title, Deacon. Today, as a Deacon myself, I now more deeply understand just what they did for my family that day. It has been 19 years. The love and kindness, the support and hard work are all gifts that have lived on through the years because, the very moment when I felt, once again, overwhelmed with grief...they were still there, comforting and supporting me.

My dear church family, all of you, each day, bring joy to others by your loving hearts. Many of you have served as Deacons and Elders, sometimes more than once. But whether you are an official Deacon or Elder, you all serve generously and are much appreciated!

We are heading into the fall toward the end of the year which means it's time once again to seek those with kind, beautiful, loving hearts to serve as Deacons and Elders. I know it is hard to make a commitment, yet our church family needs you. Each one of you is special with unique gifts from God and when we join together, we become more powerful servants.

For years I was happy to volunteer but hesitant to make the commitment. But I am so very grateful that He led me to say yes, Here I am Lord, Send me Lord...(into the kitchen, and fellowship hall, the communion table, the nursing home...).

And the best part of all...is that the more love you give, the more you receive!

It's the best job in the world!

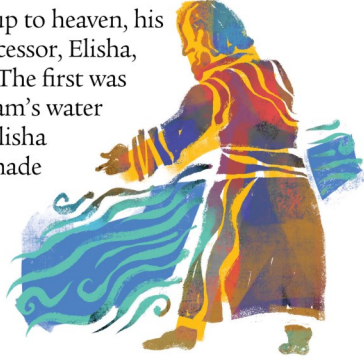

So, one day, many years from now, someone whose life you've touched by serving will be thinking back on your kindness, and your love will still be helping them... just when they need it the most!

?? Bible Quiz ??

After Elijah was taken up to heaven, his newly commissioned successor, Elisha, performed two miracles. The first was making a poisonous stream's water safe to drink. What did Elisha toss into the water that made it wholesome?

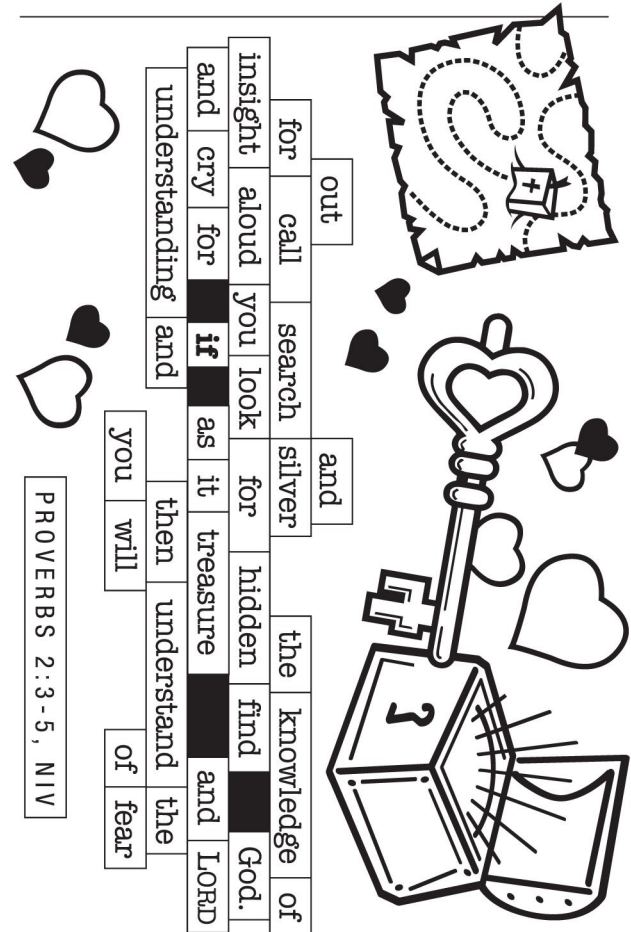

- A. a stick
- B. a new bowl
- C. bread
- D. salt

Answer: D (See 2 Kings 2:19-22.)

Puzzle!

Starting on the bold word, follow the maze to read a Bible passage. Move from one box to another if the sides or corners touch. Some boxes are used multiple times.

Answer: If you call out for insight and cry aloud for understanding, and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure, then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God. Proverbs 2:3-5, NIV
