

2018 WPPP Summer Art Camps

Grades K-5th

Winter Park Presbyterian Preschool will be holding their annual round of summer art camps in a continued goal to provide inspiration, creativity and learning for budding artists in grades K-5th.

Campers experience an environment rich in fun and freedom of expression throughout the week with a variety of new and exciting projects. Your artists will be exposed to everything from drawing, painting, sculpting, building, experimenting with colors and bringing inspiration from the outdoors in by incorporating nature and unconventional elements into their art...and who knows what else!

Campers should bring their own snack.
And of course, don't forget to 'dress in case of mess'!

Session One: June 11-15, 12:30-3:30 pm

AROUND THE WORLD

Get inspired through stories of some of the most spectacular places in the world!
Create a portfolio showcasing some of the worlds most iconic landmarks through blended painting, perspective drawing and collage!

Session Two: June 18-22, 12:30-3:30 pm

Imagination Gone Wild

Pure fun and creative expression is the name of the game!
Create portraits using magazine tear sheets and blow painting, experimenting with puffy paint, sculpting with sculpey, gel soap resist art and more!

Session Three: July 2-6, 12:30-3:30 pm

Unconventional Materials Challenge

Explore for materials both indoors and out in this project heavy week!
Painting branches to create sculpture, rolling rock painting, create-your-own foliage collage, noodle dying, fun with buttons, recyclables and much more!!
