

WOMEN'S BEAN PROJECT ORDER FORM

Women's Bean Project is a 501©(3) non-profit social enterprise that believes all women have the power to transform their lives through employment. Every women in their program does real work, on her life and in the business, making their products. They produce only real food, products that are simple, unprocessed, and delicious. After six to nine months, women discover their real promise.

They graduate and move to a career entry-level job in the community where they can advance, prosper, and often, feel valued for the first time in their lives.
